Note: To become a member, an individual must meet all membership eligibility requirements for Phi Theta Kappa according to its Constitution and Bylaw. Invitation to membership is extended by the local chapter. After becoming a member, an individual is required to maintain the minimum GPA for membership as established by the local chapter and must notify the chapter advisor immediately if at any time their cumulative GPA falls below that standard. Failure to provide notification may result in membership being automatically revoked. A member is given one term to raise their cumulative GPA to minimum standards. A person currently incarcerated is ineligible for membership. An individual convicted of a felony, or any crime whose potential sentence is greater than one year, may be considered for membership three years following completion of all conditions of sentencing, including probation.

5 Following the submission of your application to Phi Theta Kappa Headquarters you will receive:

- An email notification within twenty-four hours that your membership has been processed which happens after applications close in late October, so you will be notified by November for Fall applicants and May for applicants in the Spring. This email will contain your membership identification number allowing you full access to exclusive membership benefits.

Phi Theta Kappa is committed to the elimination of discrimination based on gender, race, class, economic status, ethnic background, sexual orientation, age, physical ability, and cultural and religious backgrounds.
